

Reviewer Name: Giselle Cancino

School: Valencia High School

Grade: Senior

Book Title: How To Survive Your Murder
Valentine

Book Author: Danielle

Rate 1-5 (1-lowest to 5-highest)- 4.5

What if you had one chance to catch your sister's murder and prevent her and another victim from getting killed again? That is exactly what happened to Alice Lawrence, when her sister Claire Lawrence was murdered in a cornfield on Halloween night and Alice witnessed it all. So fast forward a year later when Alice ends up being the sole witness in Claire's murder trial and while she is in the bathroom she gets knocked out by some girl and when she wakes up she is back to that Halloween night a year earlier and she realizes that she has traveled back in time and now has a second chance to save Claire but only has until midnight to do so and if she does not find the killer before midnight she risks never getting justice for her.

Overall the book was suspenseful and thrilling. From beginning to end, I could not predict the next thing and that was the most enjoyable part about it. There were so many plot twists and out of pocket things that occurred throughout the book that it was hard to pinpoint the killer. My favorite character in the book has to be Alice, she was so strong from the start and all the way to the end as she faced things such as lies, death, and betrayal all to find out who killed her sister.

Yes, I would recommend this book to others. This book is not discussed enough and more people should read it especially if they're into horror and thriller movies because as soon as you start reading this book that is how it's gonna feel and you end up forgetting your even reading in the first place. This book definitely reminds of Five Survive by Holly Jackson because of all the suspenseful and thriller action that happened in the book.