Book Title: The Lucky One

Rating 1-5 (1-lowest, 5-highest): 4/5

This book is about a lucky charm, more precisely, a picture of a smiling woman. Found by the U.S. Marine Logan Thibault in the dirt in Iraq, he decided to keep it with him in order to return it to the owner. At the base no one claims it so he finds himself carrying it. Returning home he still wants to understand who the mysterious and beautiful woman in the picture is. After a long journey he finally meets Elizabeth, a divorced woman with a son. It is a love at first sight but Logan decides to keep the story of the picture and of his luck as a secret.

I love the way Nicholas Sparks writes because he always expresses positivity and hope which were present in this book. He shows how bizarre life can be because it can change from a day to another. Elizabeth is always focused in her own world minding her routine but when Logan enters her life, he changes it completely bringing joy. She thought she was living a happy life but it was just appearance. I liked the concept of butterfly effect present in this book, everything happened for a coincidence, for a picture found in the dirt. My favorite character was Elizabeth because she realized the real meaning of happiness and love. She understood the meaning of unconditional love, which is something everybody should experience.

I recommend this book to everyone who is a helpless romantic, those who are in love with every form of love because thanks to the writing ability of Sparks, you feel the hope and it inspires you to find a love as strong as that. This love will change your life and give you your happy ending.
