Teach an adult to read. Inspire the world to change. Volunteer today [3]!

Placentia Library District provides one-to-one tutoring for English Literacy and Computer Literacy. All tutoring sessions are held in the Placentia Library.

English Literacy

Open to adults who need basic reading, writing and functional literacy skills. English literacy tutoring at Placentia Library is a six-month to one-year program, where the students focus on achieving personal goals through reading and writing practice. English Literacy tutoring can be viewed as a stepping stone to other educational opportunities, such as a community college course, GED testing, an ESL program, or U.S. citizenship.
As a volunteer literacy tutor, I enjoy connecting with people from different cultures. I admire the courage and tenacity of our students as they learn to read and write. It is a mutual learning experience helping others succeed with confidence and new life skills.

-Lynn Krisinger, Placentia Library Literacy Tutor

Adult Literacy students must be 18 or older and speak enough English to communicate with their tutor. A student and tutor commit to meeting at least one hour per week, over a minimum of six months. Applications for literacy tutoring are available in the library or by clicking here.

Please submit your completed application to the Information Desk. If you have questions, please contact the Information Desk at 714-528-1906.

If you are interested in becoming a Placentia Library Literacy Tutor, contact our Literacy Coordinator, Sabrina Rosengren, at 714-528-1906 ext. 214 for details. Click on Volunteer Opportunities to fill out a volunteer application and view dates for upcoming volunteer orientations.

Click here for information about Read, Write, Speak Club, a great opportunity to chat with other English language learners in a relaxed and comfortable environment.

An hour a week can change a lifetime.
